CIR866 DIDACTIC SEMINAR I - CRITICAL ANALYSIS OF THESIS

Workload: 60 h

Credits: 04

Naature: Mandatory Master and PhD

Professors: Tarcizo Afonso Nunes; Antônio Lacerda Filho; Marco Antônio Percope de Andrade

Discipline Syllabus: Session for thesis evaluation is one of the most interesting forms of learning. The participations of the student, supervisors and examining board give this meeting a high level of discussion. The participation of the Postgraduate Program students in these meetings is fundamental for the improvement of a critical view of the research work developed, as well as adequate writing and oral forms of presentations.

The Postgraduate student should submit a report with a critical analysis of the subject content, the written and oral presentation form, as well as the participation of the examining board members. Subsequently, there are a final meeting for the discussions involving all the participants.
